BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

WHEREAS: positions on Boards and Commissions are currently filled by the Governor in accordance with standards for geographic and political diversity, and members' expertise is established by the legislature, as appropriate to the individual board or commission, and

WHEREAS: geographic representation on many board and commissions is legislatively mandated to reflect the importance of the board's or commission's responsibilities, and

WHEREAS: Western Colorado currently enjoys representation disproportional to its population on certain boards and commissions which address issues vital to Western Colorado, such as the Transportation Commission, the Colorado Water Conservation Board and the Colorado Water Quality Control Commission,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that CLUB 20 supports the current process for appointments to Boards and Commissions and opposes any effort to require membership of such Boards and Commissions limited to equal representation by Congressional Districts or otherwise.
