Forest Land Trust Funds

WHEREAS: President Clinton is proposing to eliminate four National Forest Trust Funds valued at over $300 million, and

WHEREAS: Forest Land Trust Funds are critical resources used by the Forest Service to manage our national forests, and

WHEREAS: These funds are used for planting, thinning, habitat improvement projects, prompt salvage of timber blowdown and insect mortality.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that CLUB 20 opposes any changes or elimination of the Forest Land Trust Funds program and encourages the effective utilization of such trust funds for the purposes identified above.
